June 14 is the date of arrival. Participants are free to fly home on June 22 . Participants' hotel stay is provided by Yad Vashem between June 14 – June 22, 2016.

Place: Yad Vashem, Jerusalem

Partners:

The International Christian Embassy Jerusalem, ICEJ

The Museum of The Bible, Washington DC

The Course:

The Holocaust is a defining event in human history, which generated a credibility crisis of major proportions in our most basic assumptions about the nature of mankind, of society, of the modern state, and of our responsibility as individuals to take a stand against unjust suffering of innocent people everywhere. These universal questions, and many others, touch upon the very foundations of civilization and even now, over sixty years since the end of World War II, we have not yet come to terms with the implications of this event. The Holocaust has therefore become a compelling challenge for concerned individuals all over the world.

Yad Vashem is best placed to help committed individuals to meet this challenge in an open, honest, and professional environment. Yad Vashem's International School for Holocaust Studies is offering up-coming Christian leaders and young professionals a unique educational experience. During a weeklong seminar in Israel the select group of participants will experience world-class lectures, moving Holocaust survivor testimonies and an introduction to Israel through trips to key sites and monuments. (See appendix 1). The language of instruction will be English.

Application process:

Applicants are invited to send in their application form. A Committee will select the participants according to established procedures. Upon receiving the letter of acceptance the participants are expected to pay a non-refundable fee of $ 200 to confirm their participation.

Participants:

Participants are expected to be Christian leaders, student leaders and professionals in their late 20's and 30's, who will be using the knowledge gained during the seminar to connect their communities and ministries with Holocaust remembrance and education. Course participants are expected to attend all the sessions and to actively participate in the exercises and discussions.

Scholarship:

All selected participants will receive a scholarship covering course fee, field trips, hotel and meals. The scholarship does not cover round-trip travel from the participants' country of origin, travel to/from airports nor medical insurance. Applicants are encouraged to ask for sponsorships from churches and ministries for these expenses.
